

அகில இலங்கை தமிழ் ஊடகவியலாளர்கள் ஒன்றியம் ALL CEYLON TAMIL JOURNALISTS ASSOCIATION

India ready to provide assistance for media training!

Indian Ambassador to Sri Lanka Santosh Jha assures of their support to the All Sri Lanka Tamil Journalists Association.

High Commissioner Jha opined on Friday (28 - 02 - 2025) that if Tamil journalists in Sri Lanka need professional training, India can be provide such training.

The High Commissioner made the above comment while meeting and discussing with representatives of the All Ceylon Tamil Journalists Association at the Indian High Commission in Colombo.

At the meeting, the parties discussed challenges faced by Tamil journalists, repression against them, and the need better training. New media training for electronic journalists, and gaps in nessasary equipment required for the media profession were discussed in this meeting.

The Indian High Commissioner, who listened attentively to the problems faced by the Tamil media sector, stated that steps would be taken to provide training courses on modern media strategies, print, electronic and social media in India.

The All Sri Lanka Tamil Journalists Association detailed the problems faced by regional journalists, the oppression they face, the pressure exerted in the name of investigation, and the hardships they face for writing news in this meeting, and also highlighted the pressures exerted on journalists in Batticaloa, Kilinochchi, Jaffna and the central hill country areas.

President ~ T.Senthilvelavar 0777- 304078 / Secretary - Siva Ramasamy ~ 0761393805

252 & 252A , GALLE ROAD, WELLAWATTE , COLOMBO 06

அகில இலங்கை தமிழ் ஊடகவியலாளர்கள் ஒன்றியம் ALL CEYLON TAMIL JOURNALISTS ASSOCIATION

The Association also pointed out the interventions that should be made at diplomatic levels in such cases.

A proposal to provide housing facilities to journalists under the Indian Housing Scheme was also presented to the Ambassador by the Union.

Similarly, a detailed document on the challenges and problems faced by Tamil journalists was handed over to the High Commissioner during this meeting.